

BIOGRAPHY
ANNE L. LYNCH

Anne was born, raised and educated in Virginia. She moved to Arizona with her husband in 1972 and continued her career with the telephone industry. After early retirement in 1990, she directed a small, non-profit agency for several years. Following eight years with Gov. Jane Hull in State government, including serving as Deputy Secretary of State, she worked with several political organizations. She now continues her interest in politics, government and the community as a volunteer.

She is member and past chair of the Maricopa County Parks & Recreation Commission, member of the board of directors and Treasurer of Arizona Women's Education & Employment, member of Valley Leadership Class V, and member of Phoenix Rotary 100.

Anne has been married to Bob Lynch, an attorney in private practice, for 41 years and they have three daughters. Betsy is an architect with Gould-Evans in Phoenix; Caroline serves as Chief Counsel to the Crime Sub-committee of the House Judiciary Committee in Washington, D.C.; and Stephanie is a student in the Doctorate in Physical Therapy curriculum at Virginia Commonwealth University's Medical College of Virginia in Richmond, VA. She also has one grandchild.
